

What is Bákurholt Bær?

Pronounced BAH-kur-holt bah-ir, the name simply means “Beechwood Farmstead.” It is a Viking inspired farmstead that is being created for anyone who carries kindness, a love of history, and a desire to be part of something grounded and meaningful. Here, you'll find space to breathe, learn, create, and reconnect—with the land, the past, and one another.

Why Join?

By joining, you're not just gaining perks—you're standing for something:

- Historical Education: Keeping ancient knowledge alive, tactile, and teachable.
- Regenerative Farming: Tending the land with honor, wisdom, and care.
- Conservation: Protecting what's wild and sacred for generations to come.
- Community: A tribe of makers, dreamers, warriors, and storytellers.
